Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

The institution is no doubt one of public utility. Mr. a Gopala charlu is feeding and training about a dozen orphans in the Srinivasa Mandiram He gets a grant of Rs50/- per mensem from State Funds on account of the orphanage. A printed copy of Mad Govt. Pro. No. 1463-8 dt 19.9.05, relating to the Srinivasa Mandiram is put up.

The Srinivasa Mandiram and Charities,

Bungalore, 21st Dec: 1906.

Dear Sir,

I was thinking of seeing you in person for the last three days but unfortunately I feel I am unable to do so, being laid up with fever and confined to house.

Some months ago I petitioned the Rev. Commr. praying for fixing a good amount on the lands granted to the Mandiram in the Taluk of Gadaloor. The petition after undergoing all the formalities necessary, I am informed has come to your hands finally, with the full support of the Rev. Commr. recommending to Government its sanction. Your good self is being fully aware of the nature of the work he undertakes, I need not say how much it depends on your sympathy & co-operation.

of

Hoping therefore that you will kindly do what lies in your power to help us,

I remain,
Yours very sincerely
A. G. Crémieux.
